

Cognitive Science in the Humanities: Language, Literature, History & Culture

7 June 2013 – 13.00-17.00

Aula am Campus, AKH, Hof 1, Spitalgasse 2-4
University of Vienna

LabVisit - Workshop

NETWORKING

KEYNOTE PRESENTATION: Prof. Paul Turnbull (E-history, U Queensland):
Mapping the Expression of Emotion in Colonial Australian Popular Literature

RESEARCH DIALOGUES: Six experts in literature, linguistics & history introduce their applications of neuroscientific research. Participants can enter into detailed discussions of research questions with two experts of their choice:

- Dr. Susanne Reiterer (Centre for Language Learning): Second Language Acquisition: A Cognitive Neuroscientific Perspective
- Prof. Susanne Reichl (English Literature, UVIE): Cognitive Studies, Intercultural Learning, and Teaching English Literature
- Prof. Wolfgang Dressler (Linguistics, UVIE): Comparative Psycholinguistics
- Dr. Thomas Eder (German Studies, UVIE): Cognitive Approaches to Introspection
- Prof. Christa Knellwolf King (Literary History, UVIE): Cognitive Approaches to Literary Studies of Emotion
- Prof. Paul Turnbull (E-history): Cognitive Studies and the Use of Digital Media in History

POSTER PRESENTATIONS by junior academics and established research groups.

Refreshments will be served
Everybody welcome!

For catering purposes, please let us know by 5 June 2013, if you are coming.
Email: christa.knellwolf@univie.ac.at or Michela.Borzaga@univie.ac.at.

Organised by Christa Knellwolf King and Margarete Rubik (Institute for English & American Studies)